

Guidelines for Submitting an Article or Review

The Founders Journal

Committed to historic Baptist principles

The Founders Journal is a quarterly theological publication of Founders Ministries, first published in Spring 1990. The journal shares the same concerns and purpose as Founders Ministries, the recovery of the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ in the reformation of local churches. Beginning in 2012, the journal is now published as an eJournal in two digital formats: ePub (for iPad, Nook and other ePub readers) and mobi (for Kindle and other mobi readers).

The Founders Journal contains articles (reprints from old, largely forgotten works, as well as contemporary writing), book reviews, editorials, news and letters. The journal is committed to publishing articles and reviews that are consistent with the doctrines of grace and that speak from a historic Southern Baptist perspective. These will cover devotional, theological, expositional, historical and pastoral areas of interest.

The Founders Journal takes as its theological framework the first recognized confession of faith that Southern Baptists produced, The Abstract of Principles. We desire to encourage the return to and promulgation of the biblical gospel that our Southern Baptist forefathers held dear.

If you are interested in submitting an article or book review in keeping with the purpose statement above, please refer to the guidelines and submission form on the following pages. A current copy of our style sheet: "Issues in Style and Formatting" is available on our website to help you prepare your material.

Please note: Articles and Book Reviews will not be considered for publication unless they are in keeping with our purpose statement and are submitted with a completed Author Information form. Manuscripts will not be considered ready for publication or included in our publication schedule until they are completed, edited to conform to our style sheet and approved.

To submit an article or review for the journal, please send us the following:

1. Cover Letter
2. Completed Author Information form (See next page)
3. Completed manuscript of article or review (See “Issues of Style and Formatting” for guidelines in preparing your manuscript). When sending your manuscript:
 - Please send a digital file as a Word document (.doc or .docx), a Pages document (.pages) or Rich Text format (.rtf). We will not consider or accept manuscripts that are not in digital format.
 - Also send either a PDF file (.pdf) of your manuscript or (if sending material through the mail) a hard copy (printed on one side of the paper).
 - You can send your digital files as email attachments (including the cover letter and completed-scanned Author information form) or on a disk (CD only). We will not accept manuscripts sent as email text or fax.
 - If you are sending material in the mail and wish your material returned to you, please include a self-addressed and stamped return envelope.
 - We will try to respond to all submitted articles and reviews as quickly as we are able. If you have not heard from us within 100 days of submitting your manuscript, please contact us to inquire about its status.

Please email your submission to Dr. Tom Ascol at editor@founders.org
